Professor of Modern and Contemporary History at the Autonomous University of Madrid, currently on secondment to the Escuela de Estudios Hispano-Americanos (School of Spanish-American Studies) in Seville (CSIC). He has been a member of the Academia Europaea since 2020. He is currently director of the HISTOPIA research Group and has been coordinator of the Red Transatlántica de Estudio de las Utopías [Transatlantic Network of Utopian Studies] since it was established in 2014. His main lines of research have centred on the construction of the State and the comparative history of Spain and Latin America in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Currently, he works on the cultural history of politics, paying particular attention to the history of utopias.
